MCSE: Messaging

MCSE: Messaging

Solutions Expert

The globally recognized standard for IT professionals

Note This certification will retire on March 31, 2017. When the certification retires, all individuals whose transcripts list this certification as active on or after September 26, 2016, will retain the active status.

Find out about the replacement certification, MCSE: Productivity.

Validate your ability to move your company to the cloud, increase user productivity and flexibility, reduce data loss, and improve data security for your organization.

Earning an MCSE: Messaging certification will qualify you for a position in network and computer systems administration.

A new exam covering Microsoft Exchange Server 2016 is now incorporated into the MCSE: Messaging credential. The new exam (345) provides an alternate path to earning the MCSE through Microsoft Exchange Server 2013 exams 341 and 342.

Step	Course Description	Course Code	Exam Code
1	Managing Office 365 Identities and Requirements	347	346
2	Enabling Office 365 Services	347	347

Step	Course Description	Course Code	Exam Code
After successfully completing steps 1 and 2, you'll earn a Microsoft Certified Solutions Associate (MCSA): Office 365 certification.
3	Designing and Deploying Microsoft Exchange Server 2016	345-1 345-2	345

This MCSE certification requires you to show continued ability to perform in your chosen solution area by completing a recertification exam every three years.
